

Course Description Form

Course number and section: ENGL 221, 102

Course Topic: Foundations: Literature in Historical Context II

Credits: 3

Term: Winter Term 2

Instructor: Paul Milton

Course Description (aim for no more than 80 – 100 words for your course description):

This course surveys English literature from early 19th century Romanticism to 20th century modernism. Writers to be discussed include William Wordsworth, George Eliot, Robert Browning, James Joyce, Katherine Mansfield and Samuel Beckett. Assignments will include two essays, a midterm and a final examination.

Tentative Reading List: (Be as concise as possible with your reading list, but please also specify the genre of each required text. See sample below)

Other: